Dear Dandie Friends,

Our Fun Day, which was held a month ago now, was a wonderful experience. We had 35 Dandies present, although not all of them made it in time for the Group Photo. The 50+ people attending appeared to enjoy themselves as well. The usual comment prevailed – isn't it amazing that the dogs can bark so loudly at home but not a whisper from them at the Dandie Day. Thank you to all those who attended, for your willingness to help and get involved in the activities. We were able to leave the building in a very clean state.

Leesa is working on photos that were taken on the day. We will be producing a Group Photo so if you would like a hard copy of it please let Jan know. For those of you with email addresses, a copy will be forwarded.

If you have an email address but do not currently receive our communications via it, please consider sharing it as our postage costs are getting more expensive.

The next event where we are promoting the Dandies is the Big Day Out for Dogs, a function of DogsVictoria, where Breed Clubs and vendors provide the opportunity to see numerous dogs in action, games and competitions as well as the opportunity to purchase gifts. We will have a stand there to share the fun of living with a Dandie. If you are able to attend please come and say hullo. The date is Sunday December 13th, time 10.30 am – 4.00 pm at the State Dog Centre, KCC Park, 655 Westernport Highway, Skye.

We hope to be able to attend the Pet Expo which will be held in Sydney next year. As details become available we will let you know.

In the meantime, a few reminders about the hot weather. Please don't leave your Dandie in the car on what appears to be just a warm day. Used Take away plastic containers make great ice block molds which will fit most dog bowls and keep their water cool, especially outdoors. Wet towels put in the freezer can make the floor cool and provide a lovely resting place on a hot day.

We wish you all a very happy Christmas and look forward to sharing Dandie times in 2016.

Enjoy your Dandie.

With Kind Regards

Heather, Rhonda and Jan
